

Remote Desktop (RDP) access to SAIRF Analysis Workstations

In order to receive RDP access, you must be trained to operate the software on the SAIRF Analysis Workstations (AW). Contact SAIRF (sairf@uwcabone.wisc.edu) to receive training & iLab permissions to reserve the AWs. Expect RDP access to take approximately one week.

1. You will need a Department of Medicine (DOM) account. To create one, send an email with the subject “Collaborator Access Request” to sairf@uwcabone.wisc.edu with your First Name, Middle Initial, Last Name.
2. Change your password after receiving DOM userID and temporary password via email.
3. Send email to sairf@uwcabone.wisc.edu with subject “RDP Access” in the subject and include your DOM userID.
4. Go to: <https://domcitrix.medicine.wisc.edu/>
5. Enter your DOM userID and password
6. Click on the Remote Desktop Connection icon  Details
